A DECLARATION OF LOVE.

"I am for plain, simple love, without any embroidery."

I love thee! but I do not think
Thy form is perfect grace,
Nor that the charms of Venus dwell
In the features of thy face.
I love thee! but I think I've seen
A smaller foot than thine;
I also think I've seen before
An ancle much more fine.

I love thee! but a brighter eye,
A ruddier cheek I've known—
A whiter forehead and a mouth
Much prettier than thine own.
I love thee! but I know I've seen
A whiter neck and hand,
And tresses that more lightly waved
When by the breezes fanned.

I love thee! but I do not mean
To flatter thee, and swear
That thou art perfect, and divine,
When I don't think you are.
I love thee! but if thou my love
Dost scorn, I never do intend
To pine and die, for thee,
And yet I love thee too.

I love thee! for I never saw
One of the womankind
More richly dowried with gifts
Of a pure and noble mind.
I love thee! for there never was
A heart more true than thine,
Or that could ere as thrillingly
Responsive chord with mine.

ARTEMUS WARD VISITS LINCOLN.

I hiv no politics. Nary a one. I'm not in the bisniss. If I was, I spose I should holler versiffrusly in the streets at nite and go home to Betsey Jane smellin of coal ile and gin in the mornin. I should go to the Poles arly. I should stay there all day. I should see to it that my nabers was thar. I should git carriages to take the kripples, the infirm and the indignant thar. I should be on gard agin frauds and sich. I should be on the look out for the imfamus lise of the enemy, got up jes b4 clecshun for perlitical effeck.—When all was over and my candydate was elected, I should move heving & arth—so to speak—until I got orifice, which if I didn't git a orifice should turn round & abooze the Administration with all my mite and maine. But I'm not in the bisniss. I'm in a far more respectful bisniss nor what pollertics is. I wouldn't give two cents to be a Congressor. The wuss insult I ever received was when sertin citizens of Baldinsville axed me to run fur the Legislater. Sez I, "My friends, dostest think I'd stoop to that there?"—They turned as white as a sheet. I spoke in my orfullest tones, & they knowed I wasn't to be trifled with. They slunked out of site to onct.

There4, heving no politics, I made bold to visit Old Abe at his humstid in Springfield. I found the old feller in his parler, surrounded by a perfeck swarm of orifice seekers. Knowing he had been capting of a flat boat on the roarin Mississippi, I thought I'd address him in sailor lingo, so sez I "Old Abe, ahoy! Let out yer main suls, reef hum the forecastle & throw yer jib-poop overboard! Shiver my timbers, my harty!" N. B. This is ginuine mariner langwidge. I know, becawz I've seen sailor plays acted out by them New York theater fellers.] Old Abe lookt up quite croos & sez, "Send in yer petition by & by. I cant possibly look at it now. Indeed, I can't. It's unpossible, sir!"

"Mr. Linkin, who do you spect I air?" sed I.

"A orifice seeker, to be sure!" sed he.

"Well, sir," sed I, "you's never more mistaken in your life. You hain't got a orifice I'd take under no circumstances.—I'm A. Ward. Wax figgers is my perfeshun. I'm the father of Twins, and they look like me—both of them. I'm cum to pay a friendly visit to the President cleck of the United States. If so be you wants to see me say so—if not, say so, & I'm orf like a jug handle."

"Mr. Ward, sit down. I am glad to see you, sir," [Your squeals don't fool me.] "They run orf as tho Satun hisself was arter them with a red hot, ten-pronged pitchfork. In five minits the premises was clear.

"How kin I ever repay you, Mr. Ward, for your kindness?" said Old Abe advancin and shakin me warmly by the hand. "How kin I ever repay you, sir?"

"By givin' the whole country a good, sound administration. By peerin ile upon the troubled waters, North and South. By pussooin', a patriotic, firm and just course, and then if eny State wants to secede, let 'em Secesh!"

"How 'bout my Cabnit Minister, Ward?" sed Abe.

"Fill it up with showmen, sir! Showmen is dewoid of pollytics. They hain't got a darn principle! They know how to cater to the public. They know what the public wants, North & South. Showmen, sir, is honest men. Ef you doubt thare literrary ability, look at thar posters, and see small bills! Ef you want a Cabnit as is a Cabnit, fill it up with showmen but don't call on me. The morrel wacks figger perfeshun musn't be permitted to go down while thare's a drop of blood in these vains! A. Linkin, I wish you well!—Ef Powers of Walcutt wus to pick out a moddul for a beautiful man, I skarsely think they'd seulp you; but ef you do the fare thing by yure country yule make as putty an angil as eny of us or eny other man! A. Linkin use the talents with nature has put into you judishusly and firmly, and all will be well!—A. Linkin, adoo!"

He shook me cordgully by the hand—we exchanged picters so we could gaze upon each other's liniments when far away from one another—he at the hellum of the ship of State and I at the hellum of the show biziniss—admittance only fifteen cents.

A REMARKABLE YEAR.

Regarding the year now closing with its eye to its celestial and atmospheric, as well as its planetary phenomena, it has been a remarkable one, and might well create in the mind of a Millerite an irrefragible conviction that he had at last the date for a final prophecy. Thunder and lightning storms have been more violent and disastrous than usual. Tornadoes, unprecedented in fury, have ravaged every part of the country. Our western frontiers have been parched and blighted by burning Simoons. While one section is reaping a bountiful harvest another views its crops cut off by the lack of vivifying showers. Terrible storms of gales hove swept our inland waters and sea-board. Freshets and inundations have ravaged the country in various quarters. Meteors of unusual splendor and size have burst in upper air. Comets have brandished their fiery tresses. The Aurora has flaunted its banners of crimson and pearl in the northern heavens with unusual brilliancy. We have had rain storms and lightning, hail storms, a gale of wind, sunshine, and a variation of twenty degrees by the thermometer in a single day. The predictions of the weatherwise have been falsified; the astronomer has been dumb founded, and the almanac is at faule. Is there not here a magnificent field for the man of science? Who shall explain these things, trace out the secret agencies at work, and show the cause of the phenomena of 1860.—Chicago Journal

☞ A story is told of Dick, a darkey in Kentucky, who was a notorious thief, so vicious in this respect that all the thefts in the neighborhood were charged to him. on one occasion Mr. Jones a neighbor of Dick's master, called and said that Dick must be sold out of that part of the country, for he had stolen all his (Mr. Jones') turkeys. Dick's master could not think so. The two, however, went into the field where Dick was at work, and accused him of the theft.

"You stole Mr. Jones' turkeys," said the master.

"No, I didn't, massa," responded Dick.

The master persisted.

"Well," at length said Dick, "I'll tell you massa! I didn't steal dem turkeys; but last night when I went across Mr. Jones pasture I saw one of our rails on de fence, so I brought home de rail, and, confound it, when I come to look, dare was nine turkeys on de rail!"

☞ Fun should be cultivated as a fine art, for it is altogether a fine thing. Who ever knew a funny man to be a bad one? On the contrary, is not he, nine times in ten, generous, humane, and good? To be sure he is. Fun is a great thing. It smooths the rough places of life, makes the dispositions sweet and rosy, scatters sunshine and flowers wherever we go, gives the world a round, jolly countenance, makes all the girls pretty, and mankind one of the best families out. We go in for fun.

Secession of South Carolina.

On the 20th of this month, the State of South Carolina, through her State Convention appointed for that purpose, declared herself out of the Union, adopting an ordinance "that the Union now subsisting between South Carolina and the other States, under the United States of America, is hereby dissolved." This treasonable act is just what we all along suspected. In the language of Hood—"rashly importunate" she has determined to go out into the cold. What is the duty now of the Federal Government?—Clearly to treat her as if she was in the Union—to enforce the collection of the revenues—defend the forts and retain possession of the public property—and enforce all of the Statutes at large and laws of the Country. Nothing less than this, on the part of the President of the United States, will satisfy the Union sentiment everywhere—nothing less will be right.

For week after week South Carolina has been making preparations to secede, and to carry out her design by any necessary resistance to the United States authorities and laws. The members of her convention, who declared the final act, acting and speaking for the State, (as shown by the published proceedings of the Convention) declare that "there is no Collector of the Port or Post Master within the State—that they had abrogated the Constitution of the United States and the laws." These and similar views were the sentiments of the Convention. Grant the right of the State to secede and set up for herself—their right to dissolve all connection with the General Government, and we think we recognise their right to make their own laws—to collect their own revenue, or if they please, and can, to do without revenue, and carry on the Government for themselves without any responsibility to the Federal Government, or any bounden duty to discharge toward her sister States. But we think it is very clear she has no right to secede, even had she cause. In that event, she must get redress in the Union. The Constitution points out no way for dissolution. Secession is revolution. Is their any doubt of the right and the power of the General Government to prevent this or to put it down?

True it is, South Carolina need not send members of Congress and Senators to Washington unless she wishes. They need not draw out of the public treasury their $3000 a year salaries unless they choose. Judging from the fact that the present members from that State have already drawn their full pay for this session, we presume there will not be much difficulty, after they have had time to reflect and cool off, in getting patriots enough, even in the Palmetto State, to relieve us of this sum.

The relative advantages or disadvantages South Carolina would derive by secession, we do not propose to write of. In round numbers, her population consists of 300,000 white people and 400,000 negro slaves. This is the human material for the proposed new Republic. What army she should have, how it should be equipped and sustained, we are not aware of. Her utter inability to raise the means of carrying on a government must be conceded by all. Disconnected from the other States and the General Government. She could not suppress insurrections at home. The very thought of 400,000 blacks rising—an infuriated mob fighting for liberty—is dreadful. Might this not occur?—God grant, in any contingency, it may not.

So far, until the 20th, they have been talking—boasting of their powers and resources—in speech making. In all this there was no great responsibility. Now, however, matters assume a serious shape. The Convention appointed Commissioners to visit the Federal Capitol to perform various acts—to negotiate (among other things) for the surrender of Forts Moultrie and Sumpter, no doubt. The mission of these gentlemen to Washington will be a beligerent one, and we think the authorities at Washington should treat it so. That the present Chief Magistrate may treat the disunionists of the present day and view them in the same light that Gen. Jackson did years ago, we hope and trust. We gave our views several weeks ago on the duty of the North to the South. Any State enactment that in any manner—either in letter or spirit—conflicts with the Fugutive Slave Law, or its due enforcement—or with any constitutional right of the South—should at once be repealed. This is the sentiment of Pennsylvania. She is an empire within herself and can afford to act magnanimously toward her Southern brethren, but in this she only does her duty. If there is any such provision on her Statute book, then we say, let it be wiped out. Acting fairly toward the State of South Carolina and all other States and obeying the provisions of the Constitution and the Statutes of the United States, she can and will insist on these States acting in the same good faith toward her and her citizens. Let the North make all reasonable concessions and compromises, and at the same time let her insist on that right of free speech, and free thought guaranteed by the Constitution to all her citizens, whether they are traveling in the North or in the South.

This is our view and in this we think we will be sustained by the lovers of the Union everywhere—South as well as North.

Senator Crittenden's Compromise.

The telegraph has already informed the community of the tenor of Mr. Crittenden's compromise, one which he is sure the South would be willing to accept if made as an amendment to the Constitution. We publish Senator Crittenden's preferatory remarks:

Mr. Crittenden, of Ky., explained a resolution he intended to offer. It would practically re-establish the Missouri Compromise, declare that Congress shall not interfere with slavery in the States, provide for the faithful performance of the Fugitive Slave Law, &c. He said we were in trubulous times, which required conciliation and sacrifice by every lover of the Union. Calm reflection was necessary; if this mighty experiment be overthrown, it will be the greatest shock ever received by civilisation—worse than the French Revolution. Suppose the Southern States come and ask to go out, and ask for a fair division, would the North refuse? Would it not give them all they now have? Is it, then, mere party spirit now that prevents giving them all they would get, by establishing the line he proposed? What would they gain by a refusal? Nothing would be gained, but all the fatal consequences of disunion would come. In view of these mighty consequences and great events, is it not better to settle it on the Missouri Compromise line? The people were satisfied with that for thirty years and would be satisfied with it again. It was his settled conviction that unless something is done we would be a separated and divided people in less than six months.

Is not this the cheapest price to pay for the Union? Some people were not afraid, but so sure as he stood there, disunion would follow unless something was done, and he feared it would swallow even old Kentucky, as true a State as yet exists in the Union. He thought the North ought to be satisfied. The South has only one-third of the territory. When we come to make a peace offering, do we measure carefully and count every cent? It was a glorious sacrifice of party to save the Union—a Union which had cost much sacrifice. Washington said Providence helped them. Is this great work to be dashed in pieces? The recent trouble was the result of a long controversy, and we have now come to a place where the preservation demands the sacrifice of party. The highest duty of the Senate is to preserve the Constitution of the Government, and hand it down to posterity. We are in a position where history will record our action. When we sow discord and danger, we show a bitter party spirit, and a great country is ruined, and to the amazement of all the world. The Great Republic has fallen, and our names go down with stigma upon them. He wished to God that it was in his power to save the Union by giving up his private opinions. He would forgo every one. Is the South bent on revolution? He did not believe in such madness. He could speak for his own State. Old Kentucky would be satisfied with the remedy, and stand by the Union and die by it. He closed with a strong appeal to save the honor of the flag, and expressed the hope that such would be the case. He then offered his resolution.

Whereas, Alarming dissensions have arisen between the Northern and Southern States, as to the rights of the common territory of the United States, and it is eminently desirable and proper that the dissensions be settled by the Constitutional provisions which give equal justice to all sections, and thereby restore peace: therefore

Resolved, That by the Senate and House of Representatives, the following article be proposed and submitted as an amendment to the Constitution, which shall be valid as part of the Constitution, when ratified by the Conventions of three-fourths of the people of the States:

First: In all the Territories now or hereafter acquired north of latitude 36° 30' Slavery or involuntary servitude, except for the punishment for crime, is prohibited; while in all the Territory South of that latitude Slavery is hereby recognized as existing, and Shall not be interfered with by Congress, but shall be protected as property by all departments of the Territorial Government during its continuance. All the Territory North or South of said line, within such boundaries as Congress may prescribe, when it contains a population necessary for a Member of Congress, with a republican form of government, shall be admitted into the Union on an equality with the original States, with or without Slavery, as the Constitution of the State shall prescribe.

Second: Congress shall have no power to abolish Slavery in the States permitting Slavery.

Third: Congress shall have no power to abolish Slavery in the District of Columbia while it exists in Virginia and Maryland, or either; nor shall Congress at any time prohibit the officers of the Government or Members of Congress, whose duties require them to live in the District of Columbia, from bringing slaves there, and holding them as such.

Fourth: Congress shall have no power to hinder the transportation of slaves from one State to another, whether by land, navigable rivers, or sea.

Fifth: Congress shall have power by law to pay an owner who shall apply, the full value for a fugitive slave in all cases when the Marshal is prevented from discharging his duty by force or rescue, made after arrest. In all such cases the owner shall have power to sue the county in which the violence or rescue was made, and the county shall have the right to sue the individuals who committed the wrong in the same manner as the owner could sue.

Sixth: No further amendment or amendments shall affect the preceding articles, and Congress shall never have power to interfere with Slavery in the States where it is now permitted.

The last resolution declares that the Southern States have a right to the faithful execution of the law for the recovery of slaves; and such laws ought not to be repealed or modified so as to impair their efficiency. All laws in conflict with the Fugitive Slave law it shall not be deemed improper for Congress to ask the repeal of. The Fugitive Slave law ought to be so altered as to make the fee of the Commissioner equal whether he decides for or against the claimant; and the clause authorizing the person holding the warrant to summon a posse comitatus to be so as to restrict it to cases where violence or rescue is attempted.—The laws for the suppression of the African slave-trade ought to be effectually executed.

THE FINANCES OF PENNSYLVANIA.—We congratulate our readers, among all the causes of trouble, upon the bright exhibit made by the Auditor General of Pennsylvania. Nearly $700-000 has been paid into the sinking fund during the year ending November 30th, and the State debt has been reduced by that amount. This has been accomplished while an equal sum of $700,000 remains in the Treasury ready for the February interest.

The interest payable by the State is gradually sinking under the operations of our admirable financial system. This year it is reduced to $1,931,205. The direct tax is reduced to $1,444, 674, or nearly half a million below the interest of the debt. This difference is met by indirect taxes and the payments of the Pennsylvania Railroad for the Public Works. Our debt is heavy, but it is thus becoming lighter every day.

SPEAKER OF THE SENATE.—We have heard the name of Hon. R. M. Palmer of Schuylkill county, mentioned in connection with the Speakership of the Senate of Pennsylvania.—Mr. Palmer is an able and accomplished gentleman, and would make an excellent Speaker.—We hope to record his election.

Hon. L. W. Hall of Blair County, has the qualities which would make him an excellent presiding officer. He is one of our most talented and rising young politicians, and the Senate would do well to make him Speaker at its close.—Bedford Inquirer.

The above truthful and merited compliment to the Senator from this district we copy from the Bedford Inquirer of last week. Mr. Hall has all the qualities to make an efficient and popular presiding officer. If he should desire the position at the close of the coming session of the Senate, we heartly second the wish of the Inquirer that he may be chosen.

THEO. PETERSON, Clerk U. S. Senate.

SANTA CLAUS HEAD-QUARTERS.—We are now writing with one of Fettinger's magnificent gold pens, which, together with a massive holder of some other composition, was left upon our table. It writes so smoothly and slips over the paper so fast that we can hardly keep from stretching the truth, but nevertheless, what we say here Fet's cases will fully substantiate. He has just returned from the city and has now on exhibition and sale, at his Literary Emporium, the most costly and consequently the finest display of beautiful gifts and fancy toys for the Holidays that this part of the country has yet seen. Mammoth dolls, worth from $2 to $4, all dressed up in silks, gold and silver lace and ribbands, all kinds of "jim-cracks," for the boys, candies that can not be rivalled, and Annuals, Albums, Hymn Books, Prayer Books, expressly for gifts from friends to friends. His stock of jewelry is fine, consisting of lockets, breast pins, ear rings, finger rings, &c., together with plenty of such pens as we now write with, which are cheap at the price asked for them. By all means go and see Fet's store to-morrow.

☞ We are still in the notion of enlarging our paper, at the commencement of the next volume, and would therefore remind our patrons that the time for which the majority of them have subscribed expires about the first of the year, and if they have a desire to see the paper enlarged and improved, we hope they will call soon and give us a lift in that direction. We have not published a rugular "dun" in our paper for over three years and we do not intend to bore our readers with one so long as we control the Tribune. When we can't get money without doing so we will quit the business. We don't wish the above to be taken as a "dun" but merely a reminder, which, if promptly acted upon will be for the benefit of our subscribers as well as ourselves. It will cost something to enlarge our paper and add additional cost to keeping it up hereafter, yet we do not increase the price of subscription.

IMPORTANT.—According to a decision of the Post Office Department, made during the past summer, all letters, no matter to whom addressed, must be prepaid by stamps. This decision applies to letters addressed to members of Congress, or the State Legislature, consequently those of our readers who address letters to either of the above named officers, must prepay the postage thereon, otherwise their letters will be sent to the Dead Letter Office. Attention to this matter may save time and trouble.

CHEAP MEAT.—Those in want of cheap meat are informed that Mr. M. Runyan will commence slaughtering a lot of one hundred hogs, on Wednesday next, on and after which time he will have the heads, feet and spareribs of the lot for sale at greatly reduced prices. They can be had either at his market house, or at his residence.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM.—Our carrier is now preparing his annual New Year's offering, which he will have done up in neat style by New Year's morn, when he will take the liberty of calling upon his town patrons and will find out, unmistakeably, how much they have appreciated his services. Get your change ready.

"CHRISTMAS IS ALMOST HERE!"—How the heart of childhood bounds at the sound! What visions of toys, cakes and candies glide through their imagination. Who would not be a child, if for nothing more than to feel the wild thrill of ecstacy that animates the hearts of the little ones at the approach of this season of festivity and joy. "Christmas is almost here!" With what eagerness it is uttered! O, for the bright yet illusive dreams of youth, when the heart was free from care, and the tempter had not invaded the sacred precincts of the pure soul! O, that we might throw off the burden of years and once more revel in the delights of the Eden we have left behind! How the weary man of the world longs for the refreshing pleasures of youth—those dreams of boyhood long since laid aside for the stern realities of life! How he longs to stand within the enchanted circle! But no, it cannot be. Happy, joyous childhood, we look upon you with mingled feelings, of sorrow and regret—with sorrow, because evanescent nature; with regret, that we have passed your portals and bid adieu to all the bright fancies that are peculiar to the hey-day of youth.

"Oh! would I were a boy again,
When every hour seemed two or three."

AVOID PEDLERS.—Not long since a gentleman in a neighboring county bought of a pedler some salve for corns. He applied it, and it caused a sore which continued to spread and cause intense pain until he was relieved by death. This is but one of a thousand warnings against dealing with any of the thousand vagabond swindlers who are allowed to harangue crowds in our towns, and prowl among the farmers, cheating the simple and sometimes imposing upon the very shrewdest. Some of them are doubtless prison birds, and belong to gangs which tell each other where they can pluck the fattest geese by the way of trade, if they never dare go twice to the same place. The right way is to buy ail you have to buy af settled merchants, who pay rents, license and clerks, and who can be held responsible if they defraud, and be avoided if they cannot be punished.

CHRISTMAS AND THE POOR.—In the midst of the festivities incident to the holiday season, let the poor and destitute be kindly remembered. The poor we have always with us, and it is recorded as a Divine saying, that "inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these, ye have done it unto me also." The reward of the charitable is not of this world, but finds its place in the sacred memories of Heaven. In the meantime, however, let us feast upon the good things that are provided by an all-wise Providence for our use, for it is a kind of gratitude to the Giver of all good things to enjoy the fruits of the earth in due season.

☞ The last Erie Dispatch contains a strong article seconding the suggestion of the Cambria Tribune, in favor of Col. R. M. Lemon of Hollidaysburg, as the man for the Marshalship of Western Pennsylvania.

If the President wants to make a popular appointment for Central and Western Pennsylvania, let him select Bob for this position. He would make an able and efficient officer, and please all parties hereabouts.

DR. HARTMAN DEAD.—Dr. Hartman, dentist, well known to our readers in and about Bloomfield, and whose career as a gay Lothario was so graphically shown up in the Pittsburgh True Press, a year and more ago, died lately in Peoria, Ill. Hartman had eloped with a handsome young widow, the daughter of a highly respectable farmer of Westmoreland county, and was residing in Peoria at the time of his death. The lady has returned to her parents.

LECTURE BY HON. THOMAS H. BURROWES.—It is expected that Hon. Thomas H. Burrowes, Superintendent of Common Schools, will deliver a lecture on the subject of Education, in Duncansville, before the Blair County Teachers' Association, on the evening of Wednesday, 26th ult. Mr. Burrowes understands the subject of Education well, and will doubtless deliver an able lecture on the evening named.—Whig.

FIREMAN'S BALL.—The "Hop" of the "Good Will Engine & Hose Co.," at Logan Hall, on Friday evening last, was a gay affair and the participants enjoyed themselves finely. Having for some time past neglected the cultivation of our locomotion in this line, we did not attend, nevertheless, the managers have our thanks for their kind invitations. We hope the affair netted them handsomely. The boys deserve it.

☞ The notorious "Smith"—George M. Smith we mean—who keeps a confectionary, fruit and general variety store, in Tuch's old stand, on the corner of Main and Caroline streets, is supplying the town with all manner of confectionaries, fruits, nuts, toys for the little folks, and fancy articles for Christmas and New Years. Go and see this Smith and find out how cheap he sells.

SEWING.—Mrs. Renner would announce to the ladies of Altoona, that she is prepared to do all kinds of sewing, at reasonable prices, if taken to the residence of her father, George Hawkesworth, in East Altoona. We ask our lady readers to remember Mrs. R., and if they have sewing they wish done up in a neat and substantial manner, we hope they will give her their patronage.

☞ Attention is requested to the notice of the Altoona Gas and Water Company, in our advertising columns, by which it will be seen that a dividend of three per cent. has been declared.

Also, a notice which may be of interest to a young man of morality and intelligence.

☞ Clabaugh & Co. are daily adding to their handsome stock of candies, &c., for the Holidays. Several boxes of fancy articles have been received since our last issue, which are now on sale at reasonable prices. Store in the "Brant House" corner Main and Annie Streets.

A LITTLE AHEAD.—We issue our paper a little ahead of time this week, in order to give our boys a chance to enjoy a little recreation on Christmas.

☞ Our Christmas turkey has not yet made his appearance, and the question with us just now is "will it come?"

☞ A merry Christmas to all our patrons.

A TERRIBLE CALAMITY IN MARIETTA—Four Children Burnt to Death.—On Sunday evening, about 8 o'clock, a fire broke out in a two-story frame house occupied by a colored man named John Walker, in an alley opposite Samuel Johnson's stable, Marietta, and before it was discovered, or before assistance reached the spot, the interior was a sheet of flame, and four children—three of them belonging to Walker, and the other a child of his sister in law—perished in the flames. It appears, says the Express, that, early in the evening, the children were put to bed on the second story, and that shortly afterwards the father locked the door and went to church, leaving the fire in the stove down stairs. There was some kindling wood on the top of the stove, which it is supposed caught fire, and hence the cause of the frightful calamity. As soon as the alarm was given several persons were quickly on the spot, and for a few seconds the terrified faces of the children were seen at an upper window, but they soon disappeared and were not afterwards seen until their charred remains were picked out of the smouldering ruins. The ages of the children ran from about four to ten years. Another, a boy about 13 years, who was also in bed at the time, fortunately escaped without injury.—Patriot & Union.

THE NEW GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Legislature of South Carolina has succeeded, after seven ballots, and by a vote of 82 against 64 for Mr. Johnson, in electing a Governor, Col. Pickens being the successful candidate. This election may be regarded as somewhat significant, inasmuch as Col. Pickens is looked upon by the extremist in the State as much too moderate in his principles. It is well known that he strenuously opposed the secession movement until after the election of Mr. Lincoln; when by the sheer force of the current he was pressed into the movement. His election may be regarded as an anti-revolution victory, as it is generally believed in the State that he will not proceed to extremities until all negotiation and argument with the General Government have failed. Pickens was late United States Minister to Russia.

A MELANCHOLY END TO AN UNFORTUNATE LIFE.—A young widow woman, who gave her maiden name as Catharine Hall, and said that she was from New Albany, Ind., was killed in attempting to get upon the New Albany train, at Greencastle, the other day, after the train was in motion. She said that she had been to Kansas under promise of marriage, and being grossly deceived and deserted, she had started home penniless and alone, stealing rides until the conductors put her off, and begging food at stations until the next train came aloug. She had got nearly home, and having been put off this train, had run back and caught hold of the rear car to steal a ride a little further. She welcomed her death.

"A GREAT COUNTRY."—The census shows that the annual increase in the population of the United States since 1700 is about three per cent. In 1715, the population of the colonies was 482,000, of which 58,500 were negroe slaves. The present population is about 30,-000,000, of whom about 4,000,000 are negroes. Our public schools are attended by 4,000,000 of children; we owe about $260,000,000, of which $96,000,000 are held by foreigners. It takes 750 paper mills and 2,000 steam engines to supply our publishers and newspapers with printing paper, at a cost of $27,000,000 per annum.

☞ A secession cockade is sported occasionally in Washington, but the people have not acquired sufficient familiarity with them to estimate them at their true dignity. A youngster, on Wednesday evening, who was figuring quite extensively about the hotels wearing the disunion badge, was a great deal disgusted to find that he had been mistaken through the entire evening for the footman of some foreign minister, the servants of the diplomatic corps having been heretofore the only cockade-wearers known in Washington.

FORTY-SEVEN DAYS WITHOUT FOOD.—Mr. William Aartzel, farmer, residing on Sheets' farm, near Womelsdrof, in removing a straw stack a day or two ago, found a hog under it, which had been cooped up ever since the building of the stack—a period of forty-seven days—during all which time the animal was without food or water. The hog was very thin and in poor condition, but seemed to be as healthy as ever.—Reading Journal.

☞ A Bangor, Me., bully attacked Smith, the razorstrop man, on Tuesday last, with a torrent of abuse. Unable to stand it any longer, Smith put down his basket, took off his glasses, and said—"My friend, I only get mad once in fourteen years, and this is my time—I'm mad all through." With this remark, he pitched in and whipped the fellow till he had taken all the conceit out of him.

A NEW SWINDLE.—The Albany Journal describes an expert swindle, which is to scatter "Counterfeit Detectors" through the West, describing as good bogus money, and then passing it off for wheat and pork. This has been done on a pretty large scale lately.

☞ Such is the crowded state of the Paris thoroughfares, that during the last year five thousand persons have been wounded and seven hundred killed by vehicles of all kinds which fill the streets, and render the crossings of the latter almost impossible.

☞ At most of the polls in California, on election day, boxes were conveniently placed for the reception of contributions for the Washington National Monument. The returns already foot up $4,240,61.

☞ The arsenal at Charleston contains 70,000 stand of arms, sent there during the past Summer. They have been placed under the care of the citizen soldiery, and a few days since when the commanding officer at Fort Moultrie sent for several boxes of light arms, they were taken from the men he had sent for them, and the letter were taken before the Mayor and reprimanded.

Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion.

Another Great Cure effected by Berhave's Holland Bitters.

The wife of Pieter De Witte, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion. She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some HOLLAND BITTERS at our office, which has given tone to her stomach; her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true. J. QUINTUS,

ROHRER'S PRACTICAL CALCULATOR,

A Book of Plain Rules and Calculations for Business Operations, by Martin M. Rohrer, Practical Surveyor and Conveyancer. New Edition, published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

This work contains 204 pages, and upwards of 500 Rules and Examples, entirely and thoroughly practical, such as arise every day in the common pursuits of Business. It has already passed through a number of editions in rapid succession, and is pronounced by all classes of business men to be the handiest book of reference, pertaining to calculations, that has ever been published.

Every example in the book is worked out in full and stated in a plain manner, so that when a parallel case arises, those referring to the work will find no difficulty in solving it; in a word, the general arrangement of the CALCULATOR is simple, that any one who knows how to add, subtract, multiply and divide, can easily solve any ordinary example that arises in business, or arrive at the true result of any estimate required.

The chief aim of the author has been to eschew theory and philosophy in figures, aiming only at facts and simplicity, believing that business men care little about spending time in discussing the philosophy of rules, or the science of figures, deeming it sufficient for their purpose to be able at a moment, by reference, to arrive at the true result. The CALCULATOR differs in this respect from all other Arithmetics of the day and kindred works—it is a key to practical business calculations—it is, in the hands of the business man, what the key to mathematical works is in the hands of the teacher in the school room—it facilitates time and insures correctness.

THE WORK TREATS OF THE

Measurement of Land, of Lumber, of Brick and Brick Work, of stone and stone work, of grain and grain bins, of coal and coal bins, of wood, of solids, of liquids, of circular, square or irregular vessels, of cisterns and vats, of roofing, of plasterer's, painter's, glazier's, paver's, plumber's, paper hanger's and upholsterers' work. It treats of currency and of foreign and domestic exchange, of the decimal system, of reduction and its extended application to business, of simple and compound interest, and their entire application to business transactions, with the laws and usages governing and regulating the same, together with numerous commercial forms—of legal tender, of partial payment on notes, of banking and their discount, of equation of payment and of partnership accounts, of assessment of taxes, of weights and measures, of square and cubic measure; of the square root and its application to business of surfaces, of excavation, and of many other important practical matters not within the scope of an advertisement to mention.

IT IS JUST THE BOOK FOR THE

Farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the artizan, or the professional man. It has proven a valuable auxiliary to the lawyer, the justice of the peace, the conveyancer, and real estate broker, to the assessor, the banker, the clerk, to the civil engineer and the surveyor, to the carpenter and bricklayer, to the stonemason and the plasterer, to the paper hanger and upholsterer, to the paver and the tiler, &c., &c.; each and all will find it adapted to their various wants better than any book published.

☞ Mailed (post paid) to any part of the United States, upon receipt of the money. Price of a single copy, in cloth, 00 cents, or two copies for $1,00. Bound in pocket-book form, morocco, $1,00 per copy.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you 'elp me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says 'e. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞ Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idopathic Headache is by far the most common, being unusually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, horrible by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Mistus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no. a bottle of Prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be aither knowing what it is. Ye see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarther and give me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

Constipation of Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggist. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ Over excitement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous cases of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

☞ Did you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purpose you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with pefect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND.

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning grey.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or susceptive energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince us the proof of the one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff, and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriently, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thining, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when used with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being, per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

MEDICATED FUR CHEST PROTECTOR, A SAFE SHIELD AGAINST THOSE

fearful diseases Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and other affections of the Lungs, which arise from the exposed state of the chest, according to fashion and the continual changes of our Climate, for sale at the Drug Store of G. W. KESSLER.

MOFFAT'S
LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss or Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Rheumatization, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible.—Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from a protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested by Female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and the complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise, for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Afflictions of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting nor overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In Unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, quondaining, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of Iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly afflicting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both in alleviating the pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

An aperient and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER.

HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. Cooperates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,

The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor, as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it, and I am not dependant upon any one to lift me out of the ends.

Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.

Call on me, in the corner room of
